PICTURES TILE & SIGN TILE

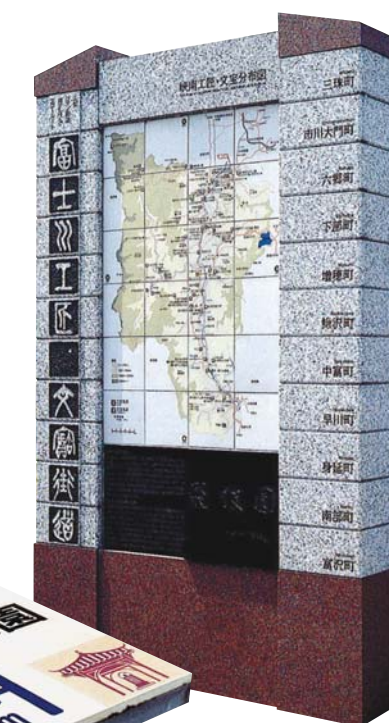

ONE HIGH-TEMPERATURE FIRING

Glaze painting using silk screens is done directly on the base, which is fired at 1250C, melding the glaze and the base into one.

As a result of the high-temperature firing, this tile can be used both indoors and outdoors, including in difficult climate conditions (such as freezing temperatures or exposure to salty conditions).

Outlines on silk screens are brush-stroked by our artisans.

For a heavy traffic area, tiles can be back with a concrete panel.
